ABOUT OLİ&CAROL

Oli&Carol is a young company from Barcelona specialized in designing cool natural toys for modern parents and their kids. The creative souls behind the brand are Olimpia and Carolina, two sisters who started the company 5 years ago when they were only 21 and 16 years old.

Since the beginning of Oli&Carol we believe in taking care of the environment offering natural sustainable products that follow an artisanal handmade process. The brand offers baby rubber toys meant for teething, bath time and sensory play for kids 0.

Olimpia and Carolina are in continuous innovation designing and expanding the brand around the world. Oli&Carol has a worldwide presence in more than 80 countries.

A close-up photograph of a baby's mouth holding a red, bumpy teether that resembles a raspberry. The teether has two green, leaf-shaped pieces attached to its sides. The baby's hands are visible, holding the teether. The background is blurred, showing some warm, out-of-focus lights.

TEETHERS

THE FOUNDERS

Oli&Carol is a young company from Barcelona specialized in designing baby rubber toys meant for teething, bath time and sensory play for kids 0+

The creative souls behind the brand are Olimpia and Carolina, who built the company 8 years ago when they were only 21 and 16 years old.

"Our goal is to create a better and safer world to live in. To do so, we needed to connect with parents. Natural rubber and with no hole; our products became a must for them."

CAROLINA (CO-FOUNDER)

"Since the beginning of Oli&Carol we wanted to act for the benefit of society. To do so, we help kids who can't afford basic needs get an education."

OLIMPIA (CO-FOUNDER)

Oli&Carol products are targetted to cool parents who are looking for safe and natural toys for their kids.

They appreciate products that are handmade and follow an artisanal process, and that take care of the environment by being plastic-free and with 100% natural raw materials.

WHY OLI&CAROL NATURAL

Made with 100% Natural Rubber from Hevea Trees. Flexible and soft, easy to grasp, squeezable and safe to chew. Little gums love the texture of Hevea rubber.

Hand painted with food grade dyes. It's not a synthetic, plastic toy! It's completely safe for babies to chew on.

Biodegradable, sustainable and environmentally friendly.

RUBBER TOYS?

Non toxic. Highly hygienic. They have no holes preventing the creation of bacteria inside.

PVC, BPA, Phthalates and Nitrosamines free. Completely safe for kids. Certified eco-friendly and non-toxic.

Oli&Carol offers more than toys. They introduce kids into important messages, such as following healthy habits and respecting the Earth.

MORE THAN TOYS

The brand as a whole wants to introduce its community into using plastic-free products made from 100% natural raw materials. Aswell, with each collection the sisters want to transmit a powerful message.

The natural rubber teethingers and bath toys introduce kids into a healthy lifestyle from a young age with the Fruits&Veggies collection & the H2Origami natural toys introduce kids into respecting our oceans by donating benefits to Oceana Organization, who cleans marine biodiversity around the world.

Every little action counts, and Olimpia and Carolina's mission is to introduce families into such important messages and make a difference.

OLI&CAROL x BigStuffed

Oli&Carol manufacturer of sustainable teethers and toys presents its new collection Oli&Carol x BigStuffed, a collaboration with the brand created by Dana Muskat that has quickly gained international recognition.

Marine bath toys that will captivate children and bring them closer to the wonders of the sea. Adopting Walter, Sharon and Orlando will give children more than just toys. These 3 albino sea creatures aim to enhance the uniqueness and celebrate the individuality of each child.

This extraordinary collaboration captures the magic of both brands, combining Oli&Carol's commitment to sustainability and eco-friendly materials with the soulful essence of BigStuffed.

Handcrafted from natural rubber and designed without holes, these 3 marine-inspired toys have no holes, making them completely safe for water play. Perfect for little ones to explore the wonders in the water.

OLI&CAROL x
bauhaus movement

In collaboration with the Bauhaus Movement, Oli&Carol presents its new interactive and educational toys for babies & kids.

The Bauhaus Movement's fundamental principles are based on geometry & abstraction, striving to combine aesthetics with everyday function. Our mission with this collection is to bring art closer to kids while introducing them to primary colors & shapes that surround them.

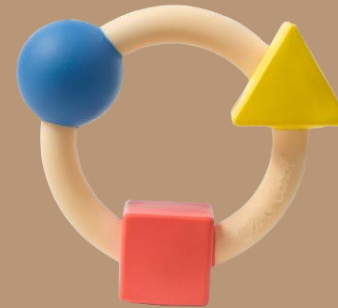

With a timeless design, these 4 natural rubber sustainable toys are an approach to Montessori education. Jumping into a wider age range making not-so-newborns able to pile up & play around.

CARE INSTRUCTIONS NATURAL RUBBER TOYS

To clean, simply wipe your toy with soapy water and a damp cloth.

Do not sterilize.

Our toys must be stored in a dry place. As any natural product, toys might start to mold if left on a wet or moist environment.

Air drying between use is recommended.

Do not leave on direct contact with sunlight or artificial light for long periods of time, color may fade.

Every toy is different. Our products are handmade one by one, so small imperfections are what makes each product unique.

Variations in temperatura may affect the product's shape and volume.

Remove packaging and all tags before giving the toy to your child.
